Thank you for taking the time to visit our website, we hope it will be both thought provoking and beneficial.

Here at "the fish" we offer solutions to most common problems faced by companies and organisations trying to gain a competitive advantage by using the Internet.

Or, simply trying to deliver a better service and communicate more effectively.

Our aim is to solve your problems, help you make sense of the confusing mix of options available and deliver an exceptional service to your clients.

If any of these sound familiar we can help:

'We want to be able to update our website whenever we want and without the need to use complex software and we don't want to pay someone to do it...'

We offer a great, affordable content management solution.

'We want to create a lists of leads to target with news and special offers...'

We can help with mailing list creation and managment.

"We need to be able to manage our sales leads and customer contact efficiently and effectively..."

We have a web based lead and customer management tool that offers exceptional performance.

'We need to give online support to our clients and their customers...'

We can help with forums, helpdesks and inventory systems.

'We need to sell things online...'

We can help implement a range of e-commerce solutions.

"We need to share information, documents and files with a number of clients in a secure and discreet manner..."

We can offer secure document and contact management available 24/7.

For more information on these services please contact us on 01433 445001 or by email.

Whatever you are intending to create on the web it is likely that we have a solution, if it is not immediately obvious from the website, please drop us an email explaining what you need and we will respond promptly.
